

NATIONAL BANK OF GREECE

Deposits for repayment of the public debt

National Bank of Greece is playing its part in supporting the Greek economy at this critical time. Accordingly, it now provides members of the public with the opportunity, should they so wish, to deposit money into the "Solidarity Account" that has been set up to help pay off the nation's public debt.

Deposits can be made into the following account: 040/541599-36 free of charge by:

- visiting any of our branches,
- using our alternative transaction services, available around the clock:
  - Internet Banking (*), selecting the option "Remittance to NBG Account".
  - Phone Banking (*), simply by calling 181818 and saying the word "Agent".
  - NBG network ATMs, under the main menu title "Fund transfers-remittances", and specific transaction title "To a third-party NBG account",
- making a wire transfer, with the following details:
IBAN: GR8801100400000004054159936
SWIFT / BIC: ETHNGRAA
Charges instructions: SHA or BEN
Full name of sender

The monies deposited into this account will be transferred on a daily basis into the special Solidarity Account held with the Bank of Greece for this purpose.

(*) To use these services you need to be a signed-up Internet and/or Phone Banking user.
